

September 2008

Where has the year gone? September already! What an amazing and busy last few months it has been. I feel so blessed with the people in my life at the moment, and the new people coming in makes me feel positively spoiled. Like attracts like – and I like it!!!!!!!

Tracyann

One of the most positive and helpful developments for me is that Tracyann is now my right-hand woman. Due to the major increase in demand for readings etc I was falling a little behind when it came to promptly answering phone calls and emails. Tracyann is now organizing my diary, which enables people who leave messages and emails to receive earlier responses to their requests for bookings – which are now booked out till February 2009 at the moment. She was definitely an answer to my prayers. Funny she was under my nose all the time – just too close to see – something about wood and trees????????? A lesson for us all I think.

Anam Cara

Anam Cara continues to go from strength to strength, even though it is only once a month. Where else can you get healing, a meditation, a laugh, a cup of tea and a biscuit for only $5 - pretty good value for money.

I am in talks at the moment with a lady to come and give a talk about her life and how she became a Medical Intuitive. She has written a book. Her story is both amazing and inspiring. I am also wanting 'us' to learn more about Palmistry and Astrology, so I'll have to talk to some of my friends 'in the know'!

Lifting the Veil

The shows continue to go from strength to strength. I never cease to be amazed by the impact a message from someone else's loved one can have on a room full of strangers. The power of love! I am so grateful for the wonderful feedback people send to me about their messages.

As I mentioned in my previous newsletter I am compiling all this feedback into a book so that these beautiful stories can be shared by others. So, if you have a story about a message you have received at a show or during a personal reading, it is worth taking the time to send me an email. Who knows, your story, starring your loved ones may be immortalised in the book.

There are only 2 more shows booked for this year in October and November. Tickets, which are still only $30, can now be purchased via my website www.donnawignall.com using the secure paypal system, or you may be able to collect the tickets for the Rockingham show from my best mates in Rockingham, Margaret and Alan – Tel: 9527 7281.

What a wonderful place to meet so many beautiful people. Tracyann and I share a 'space'. I thought it would have been a booth, but I thought wrong! Nevertheless, we probably had the busiest little 'space' going, and created quite a few 'traffic jams'. Tracyann and I were conducting readings, Tracyann using the runes and palmistry (which I totally recommend), and me doing tarot and clairvoyance. On the Thursday, Friday and Sunday I also performed a Clairvoyant demo in the public area, which I have to say were always jam packed – which was great. I was told later by the Expo organizers that my demos generated the largest crowds, which gave me such a buzz, and goes on to do so because lots of people are buying tickets to my shows after seeing me there, and booking their own private readings which is why I am booked out till February 2009.

David Wells

As you know David Wells the UK Medium famous for his appearances on UK TV's Most Haunted came over to Perth. He carried out some workshops at the Expo, then we would then we teamed up to bring audiences 'An Evening of Enlightenment'. I did the clairvoyance for the first half hour then he continued with his story of how he got to where he is and what he does.

David is a respected astrologer, tarot reader and past life regressionalist. He is keen to teach others and share his knowledge, which he is doing with his books, but he will also be conducting more workshops.

If he comes over next year he will be conducting some 'ghost hunting tours'. We did a 'Spooky Encounter' evening at the Fremantle Prison which people absolutely loved, and I know organizations in Sydney and Melbourne are keen to have him back, so I suggest you keep an eye on his website to see what's going on – www.davidwells.co.uk

After the hectic schedule of the Expo during the day and the Shows at night, we went over to Sydney. David was appearing on TV. We managed a little down time, I climbed the Sydney Harbour Bridge, went on a Ghost Tour, went to the Blue Mountains, got sandblasted on Bondi Beach and had breakfast a Russell Crowe's local. I have to say, David and I got on like a house on fire. We both have a wicked sense of humour, and we both have a strong passion for the work we do, which makes us keen to encourage others to grow and learn to empower their own abilities.

Barry Eaton – Radio Out-there (Sydney)

Following my trip to Sydney with David Wells, Barry Eaton contacted me to organise an interview for his radio show, Radio Out There. We carried out the interview on Monday 22nd September so I reckon it will be uploaded pretty soon.

Radio Out There is a radio program created and hosted by Barry Eaton from Sydney. It is broadcasted all over the world via the internet (www.radiooutthere.com). Barry has wide international experience in all areas of the media and entertainment industries, he is also a qualified astrologer and intuitive counsellor and runs a meditation and development group each week in Sydney. Barry and Enzo (the Psychic Medium from 'The One') have done shows together.

Check it out, let me know what you think.

If you always do what you've always done, you'll always get what you've always got!

Ghost Busting

I have been approached to be the resident Medium for a 'Ghost Busting' Tour. Let me know via email if you would be interested.

Workshops/Seminars

Next year I will be conducting day workshops on developing your own Psychic Abilities, developing Clairvoyance, Meditation, etc in Joondalup, probably at the Reception Centre. Let me know if you would interested via email and I will let you know as soon as I have the dates and itineraries..

Q & A

If a child dies, do they age in the Spirit World?

During the September Lifting the Veil show in Butler, I brought through the spirit of a little boy that had died at the age of 5 from leukemia. The lady receiving the message stated she could take it but the child died 30 years ago. This child's spirit showed how spirit come through presenting as they were when they died (well for me at least). If I had said to the lady I had a 35 year old male spirit wanting to connect, she probably wouldn't have been able to make the connection. Funny thing was, the child's spirit was bringing through her mum, so had she not made the connection with him, she would have missed out on the connection with her mum, who went on to give a lovely heartwarming message.

As far I as I can tell when a Medium like myself is making a connection to loved ones from Spirit, a child remains a child , a baby remains a baby, an old person an old person. How else would it make sense? Remember, their body no longer exists, so it can't grow. However, the Spirit housed in that body that may or may not have been here for a short while, could have existed for centuries. How many times have you referred to a child as an 'old Soul'

How soon can someone come through when they have passed over?

I have heard Mediums talk about a waiting time of 12 months before Spirit can successfully come through, some 6 months, some 3 months.

It has been my experience to bring a connection through the morning after their loved one died the night before. A mere matter of hours!!!!!!

There have been a few memorable readings at the Lifting the Veil shows were a father came though even though he hadn't yet been buried, and mentioned his mate being up there with him. His mate had died 2 days after him! Another where a young man wanted to get a message through to his wife, he had only passed a few weeks before. So, my answer to that question is, as soon as they are ready. The frustrating thing is that sometimes we are waiting for a thunderbolt or something so obvious that we can't mistake the signal for wishful thinking or our imagination. However it can be something a subtle as their favourite song on the radio when you randomly change the channel, a face in the crowd that reminds you of your loved one, a misplaced article belonging to them suddenly turning up or a white feather where there shouldn't be one. Just look. The signs are there. And remember to always keep talking to them. They can hear you even though you might not be able to hear them.

Hope you enjoyed this edition of the newsletter. Please forward any questions or anything you would like to have included in the next newsletter.
